

Your recent change to rules ("Unsolicited Fax Rules") which apply to associations is vast "over-kill." Our association fax machines currently receive unsolicited faxes from all sorts of vendors and I agree that some restrictions must be enacted. But to include associations which fax THEIR OWN MEMBERS (about education courses, various meetings, etc.) is not good common sense. I urge you to reconsider this ill-thought out rule. Thank you.